More Than Manna,
More Than Bread and Fish

During the Exodus, the Lord rained down bread (manna) each day to feed those in flight. Last Sunday, after being filled with bread and fish, the crowd pursued Jesus for more food. Rightly exasperated, Jesus patiently shifts the conversation from bread from heaven to true bread. He ends by saying: “I Am the bread of life.” What looks like bread is more than bread. More than we can imagine!

- † What do I believe Communion to be?
- † Why do I believe this?
- † Why do I come in procession each Sunday to eat this bread, this Communion, this Christ?

Our Mission

As a welcoming people, with Jesus as our foundation, we are the Catholic Community of St. Scholastica Parish. Guided by the Holy Spirit and the Scriptures and strengthened by the Eucharist, we humbly and joyfully accept our baptismal call to share our time, talents, and treasures to support and nurture each other and those in need.

Welcome

All those visiting the parish are invited to stop by the “Welcoming Center” in the Breezeway of the Church to pick up information about our parish. Registration forms can be found in this area and once completed can be placed in the offertory basket at Mass. The form can also be downloaded from our web site. If you need any assistance in completing the form, please don’t hesitate to contact us at 630.985.2351, ext. 122. We would also be happy to take your information over the phone.

Praying the Mass: The Communion Rite

When we come to receive Holy Communion, the ministers of Christ’s Body and Blood say to each of us, “The Body of Christ,”... “The Blood of Christ,” and I say, “Amen” to each. Those are the biggest “Amens” I’ll ever say. We’re not simply saying, “Amen” to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. We’re saying “Amen” to receive the Lord into our lives – not someday, when we’ve got everything worked out, but here and now.

In effect we say, “Lord, I’m not perfect, and I don’t have all the answers. But, I do believe in you, and I accept you into my life here and now.”

The cup has a particular meaning. In Gethsemane Jesus prayed, “Father, if you were willing, take this cup away from me.” The cup of suffering wasn’t taken away. But by accepting it, Jesus found the path to life.

When I stand before the cup, and say, “Amen,” I’m saying, “Lord, I accept as you did, whatever suffering cannot be taken away. I trust, as you trusted, that God will somehow make this something good. And I trust that if you are with me, I can do it.”

Think about those two Amens. Spend some time on each. And the next time you receive Holy Communion, say them with a conviction that comes from way down deep inside.

A PRAYER TO ST. PEREGRINE FOR ONE SUFFERING FROM CANCER

Dear St. Peregrine,

I need your help. I feel so uncertain of my life right now. This serious illness makes me long for a sign of God's love. Help me to imitate your enduring faith when you faced the ugliness of cancer and surgery. Allow me to trust the Lord the way you did in this moment of distress.

I want to be cured, but right now I ask God for the strength to bear the cross in my life. I seek the power to proclaim God's presence in my life despite the hardship, anguish and fear I now experience.

O Glorious St. Peregrine, be an inspiration to me and petitioner of those needed graces from our loving Father.

Amen

Please Pray for Our Friends and Family Battling Cancer

To request to be added or removed from the cancer list, please contact the office at 630.985.2351, ext.122. In order to keep the list up to date, names will be removed automatically after six months.

Prayer for the Return of Non-practicing Catholics

O Good Shepherd, you never cease to seek out the lost, to call home the stray, to comfort the frightened, and to bind up the wounded. I ask you to bring... (names) back to the practice of the Faith, and to remove all obstacles that prevent them from receiving your abundant mercy, which flows sacramentally through the heart of your holy Church. Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, their guardian Angels, their Patron Saints and the ever-prayerful St. Monica, may you pardon their sins and unshackle them from whatever hinders their freedom to come Home. For you, O Good Shepherd, have loved us to the end and offered yourself to the Father for the salvation of all.

Amen
