Pursuing Jesus.

After curing Simon’s mother-in-law, Jesus, standing at the door, is teaching, healing, and casting out demons. Then, leaving at dawn, he goes off alone. Simon and the boys, pursuing him, find him praying and plead: “Everyone is looking for you.”

- † Since I am looking, where will I find Jesus this week?
- † What teaching of his do I need to hear? What healing?
- † How is my listening spilling out into mercy thoughts, mercy action, mercy works?

Our Mission

As a welcoming people, with Jesus as our foundation, we are the Catholic Community of St. Scholastica Parish.

Guided by the Holy Spirit and the Scriptures and strengthened by the Eucharist, we humbly and joyfully accept our baptismal call to share our time, talents, and treasures to support and nurture each other and those in need.

Welcome

All those visiting the parish are invited to stop by the “Welcoming Center” in the Breezeway of the Church to pick up information about our parish. Registration forms can be found in this area and once completed can be placed in the offertory basket at Mass. The form can also be downloaded from our web site. If you need any assistance in completing the form, please don’t hesitate to contact us at 630.985.2351, ext. 122. We would also be happy to take your information over the phone.

Your Weekly Message from Fr. Norbert, CR

This week I almost felt as if I were sharing thoughts with Job. My problem was trying to get my brain started to write this article. I had a large number of little things floating around as possible topics but was unable to center upon a single topic. Well, I finally settled down and my topic is Job. Honestly Job is not the most cheerful and up lifting biblical story in the Old Testament because he just focuses upon the misery he is living through. Whatever was positive in his life has been pushed out of his memory: he just recalls all his suffering and sad events which he had to live through. To be honest there are times in our lives too when we feel that we are overburdened and find it difficult to move forward. We concentrate only on the sad and trying moments and fail to see the enjoyable experiences we have had in our lives. When we suffer as Job suffered, nothing else matters. Every moment of every day is consumed with wondering, "Why me? Why did this happen to me?" If we are fortunate, we may have someone close to us who will simply listen and help us to figure out things. One of the ways that may help us is to recall the joy filled moments of our lives and seek other positive moments in life. Prayer too is on the positive side. Not just asking for help to go beyond the difficult moment, but to also offer thanksgiving for the blessings that God has continually bestowed upon us. Prayer is always helpful. This Sunday we are asked to remember to give thanks for all the women and men who have given themselves to Our Lord Jesus Christ by publicly professing the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience in religious life. This includes monks, hermits, men and women dedicated to contemplative life, active religious life as sisters, brothers, and priests. Those who choose this life are committed to imitating Christ, engaging in his ministries of spreading the Good News, and showing that "the world can be transfigured with the spirit of the beatitudes" (Catechism 932). Also at a finance council meeting a discussion was held about creating a directory of trades of our parishioners that can be accessed by the parish office when we are in need of advice. This is not to seek free work, but educated advice as to what is the best choice in doing a project. And finally, the Diocese of Joliet has launched the 2024 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal. This year's theme is For the Glory of God. Please support our diocese in fulfilling its ministries. God bless you and have a great week.

The opening report for the 2024 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) in today's bulletin reflects how we, as Christians, are called to serve those in need For the Glory of God.

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation.

Our parish's goal for the 2024 CMAA is $101,700. The diocese will return 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal to us, to be used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

Would you like to provide a fresh floral arrangement to adorn the sanctuary of our church on a given Sunday? This is a wonderful opportunity to commemorate a special event, i.e. a birth, wedding anniversary, anniversary of a loved one's death, etc. Your name and the occasion will be published in the bulletin. To order your arrangement and secure the date you wish simply contact The parish office at 630.985.2351, ext. 122. Seventy-five dollars will cover the cost and the Art and Environment Committee will take care of the rest!

Thank you for your generous support for the last week's Collection for the Church in Latin America. As a parish, we collected $000 to share the faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean, so they in turn can share the Good News in their communities. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! Visit www.usccb.org/latin-america. #iGiveCatholicTogether also accepts funds for the collection—see usccb.igivecatholictogether.org. Your gift makes a difference.

Prayer for Solidarity

Merciful and loving God, through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, we ask you to help us grow in unity and solidarity with the faithful around the world, especially those in Latin America and the Caribbean. Grant us the grace to give generously of our time, treasure, and talent to those in need. May we learn from the example of St. Junípero Serra, St. Rose of Lima, St. Óscar Romero, and all the saints from the Americas, and share our faith with humility and love. We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Amen

January 2024

Dear All of You Who were so generous in helping us with our Christmas card project, 2023:

Wow, together we made it possible for over 12, 565 cards to be mailed or delivered to our brothers and sisters who are imprisoned. Because of your generosity we were able to send cards to two new prisons. Think of all the people who you helped us touch with a message of love and concern. To each it is a reminder that they were not forgotten.

The numbers are:

- 6265 signed cards to people confined in jails and prisons.
- 4400 unsigned cards to these facilities so those confined in them had cards to send to their loved ones.
- 1900 signed card mail by the US Postal Service

Messages of thank you:

"I just wanted to thank you for more than 20 years of friendship, where you never missed a birthday or a Christmas letting me know that someone out there cared. I know there are thousands of inmates who appreciate the cards and letters just as much as I do. You are a light in a dark place, showing us the way out."

"I want to say Merry Christmas to you too. It was very thoughtful of you to send the card. I've been in a dark place for a little while, for the passing of a family member. To get this card shined some light on me and made me feel a lot better for the holidays. Thank you very much. Your words did a lot."

We give thanks to you and all our volunteers that make CJT's mission a reality.

May each of you have a fulfilling 2024. May you be well and may you receive many blessings,

Marv Baldwin, Executive Director

The following testimonial was prayerfully submitted by Jan Leifel and Carol Heinrich. They share it with you in hopes that other people will share their love of the Eucharist by writing of their experiences.

"The Eucharist is the greatest gift given to us. It's startling to think that the Lord — in spite of His suffering, rejection, and sorrow — gave His life in order to grant us the way to heaven. We can speak to the Lord in prayer, but the reception of the Eucharist is the moment when we can experience real intimacy with Jesus; what greater way to talk with our greatest friend. The Lord told us that when we receive Him in this sacrament, He lives in us and we live in Him."

"If in doubt, priests have experienced many miracles during consecration, miracles that prove that the sacrament is real. The first was in 8th-century Italy, when the bread and wine were transformed into real human flesh and blood. Some recent miracles cannot be explained by scientists, proof that they are greater than science."

"The Vatican International Exhibition, 'The Eucharistic Miracles of the World,' catalogs more than 100 miracles that have been venerated since the earliest days of the Church. That leaves no doubt. In addition, Chapter 3 of Bishop Robert Barron's book 'This Is My Body' helps our belief, giving us insight, through the learned, of the mystery of the Eucharist."

I look forward to receiving YOUR story and being able to share it here in the bulletin.

In the meantime, I pray for you and our St. Scholastica Parish Family.
