

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

This is the Verdict.

The gospel declares the Light of Christ came into the world. The choice is either we are saved not by our own works (through good works we still need do), but by God’s gift and grace.

† What darkness will I move out of so I may stand in the Light?

† What good works will I continue doing to acknowledge God’s gift and grace to me and to all?

† How can I live this truth: we are saved as a people by God’s grace?

Our Mission

As a welcoming people, with Jesus as our foundation, we are the Catholic Community of St. Scholastica Parish.

Guided by the Holy Spirit and the Scriptures and strengthened by the Eucharist, we humbly and joyfully accept our baptismal call to share our time, talents, and treasures to support and nurture each other and those in need.

Welcome

All those visiting the parish are invited to stop by the “Welcoming Center” in the Breezeway of the Church to pick up information about our parish. If you need any assistance in completing the form, please don’t hesitate to contact us at 630.985.2351, ext. 122. We would also be happy to take your information over the phone.

My fellow Stewards—“Stewardship our Way of Life”

Your Weekly Message from Fr. Norbert, CR

As I announced at the masses last Sunday Fr. Mark Cote will officially become the pastor at St. Scholastica Parish on July 1, 2024. Some of you did remember him because he was here with us at St. Scholastica before

Fr. Ed was assigned to our parish. Amazingly, some did not remember him until I mentioned Lucy, his dog. I found it remarkably interesting that people remembered Lucy without a problem. But in the meantime, Fr. Ed and I are still ministering here until the end of June. June is still a bit down the road of time. But right now, we are still examining our lives during this Lenten season. Surprisingly, this Sunday speaks of joy during our Lenten observance. Traditionally on this Fourth Sunday of Lent we change our mood toward one of hope and joy because the celebration of Easter is now closer. Even the color of our vestments reflects this joyful mood because we are permitted to use a Rose-colored vestment in place of the purple chasuble and stole. This Sunday traditionally is referred to as "LAETARE Sunday." The traditional entrance hymn begins with Laetare Jerusalem: et omnes qui diligitis eam (Rejoice, O Jerusalem: and all who love her.). The Latin verb Laetare which all you Latin scholars know means "rejoice." Our first reading this Sunday is taken from the Book of Chronicles in which we hear of the importance of listening to the prophets who tried to guide the chosen people to remain faithful to the Lord. Instead, the people not only ignored the prophets but mistreated them and paid no attention to the Lord. Ultimately the whole of Israel ended up in a disastrous situation: the temple was burned and destroyed and many, who were not killed, were taken into captivity into Babylon. But hope was reborn when Cyrus became the king of Persia because he permitted the remnants of God's chosen people to return to Jerusalem, their homeland. It became a time to rejoice. We also can rejoice in this part of our Lenten journey. We still will observe the requirements of fasting and abstinence, but we could include some positive elements during the remaining time of Lent. We could forgive someone who offended us a long time ago even though we felt that they do not deserve forgiveness. There is still time to create a daily quiet time for prayer, especially for all those who helped us and are still helping us in our daily lives. But now we can do this with a joyful attitude. Just in case you are wondering, I am adding a picture of Fr. Mark Cote this week. And here is a picture of Lucy. May the Lord bless you every day this week.

From time to time there are phishing (SCAM) emails going out to members of the parish claiming to be Fr. Norbert. Please note Father Nobert, Father Ed, our deacons and staff DO NOT send texts or emails asking for money or gift cards. If you receive a message appearing to be from Father Norbert or Father Ed, please discard it (any email that does not have "stscholasticaparish.org" is a fake email), and DO NOT SEND ANY ELECTRONIC MONETARY AID. No clergy or staff will personally ask for money in whatever form (gift cards, etc.). If someone sends you a private message asking for a donation of sorts, it's undoubtedly a fake account. Please keep praying for us and God bless you.

Sacrament of Baptism

Lenten Guidelines

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on all the Fridays of Lent
2. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
3. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year; all, in addition to following the Lenten regulations, are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial, serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

Bethlehem Arts March 16 & 17

We will host representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land who will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles. Due to the political conflict and the reduction of tourism, the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive and to keep their faith and Christian presence in the holy land. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for the Lord.

Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you. The handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles will be available for purchase after all the weekend Masses.

I came into the Daybreak program about 1.5 years ago. When I got here I had been homeless for 4 years after being evicted from my apartment due to stress, diabetes and trauma. I couldn't keep up with my bills. I entered the program with my 11-year-old son who is my biggest support system. I needed a home so he could feel safe. Over the last year, this program has helped us heal from life experiences and has helped me grow in managing my finances better. My mentors, Elevelene Bryant and Richard Stern, and the Bridge community's counselors, have become my village. This program and the support from St. Scholastica parish have given us a second chance.

Please come by the breezeway during Lent to support Daybreak's Adopt-A-Family annual fundraiser. It costs $35 a day for us to sponsor each of our three families. You will also have a chance to win a $100 gift card. You can drop a check by itself or in our envelope (found in the narthex) in the collection basket (checks made payable to Daybreak of St. Scholastica). To give online, use the QR Code to the right to go to <https://osvhub.com/stscholasticaparish/funds> and scroll until you see DayBreak Program. We appreciate everything you do to help and we wish you a spiritual Lent.

The National Eucharistic Revival app or website has many good things. One of them is the video “Saint Teresa of Calcutta and the Eucharist.” It’s very short — only 2 minutes, 19 seconds. I urge you to watch it. To do so, visit <http://tinyurl.com/48hbtu2c/>.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta was a woman in love with Jesus. For her, Jesus was not divided. He said He would remain with us always, until the end of time. He kept that promise through His presence in the Holy Eucharist. He also said that whatever we did for the least of his brothers and sisters, we did for Him. The legacy that Mother Teresa left to her community, and to the world, is to recognize Jesus in the Eucharist, and to recognize Him in the people around us, especially the most vulnerable. The video clip, pulled from the feature film “Mother Teresa: No greater Love,” zooms in on the Eucharistic life of Mother Teresa and her community.

In another clip, which you can watch at <http://tinyurl.com/2hpn54au/>, there is this exchange:

Interviewer: What can you recommend for a person, whether Catholic or another faith, that doubts the Real Presence?

St. Mother Teresa: Pray. Pray. The fruit of prayer is always the joy of loving Jesus, coming closer to Him.

Interviewer: What if somebody says, “I don’t know how to pray”?

St. Mother Teresa: I will teach him. We learn to pray by praying. Even Jesus. He spent hours in prayer.

I want to share with you a prayer that Mother Teresa would pray after she received Communion:

† Dear Jesus, help me to spread Your fragrance everywhere I go.
Flood my soul with Your spirit and life.
Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly,
That my life may only be a radiance of Yours.

“Shine through me, and be so in me
That every soul I come in contact with
May feel Your presence in my soul.
Let them look up and see no longer me, but only Jesus!

“Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as You shine,
So to shine as to be a light to others. Amen. †

I invite you to make this prayer your own. I invite you to share your Faith Journey Story here.

Peace, shalom,
