

EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

“Clear Out the Old Yeast.”

St. Paul speaks these words to us today. Get rid of old yeast to make a fresh batch of dough. Shed, he says, the old yeast of malice and wickedness and use he says, the new yeast of sincerity and truth. For Christ is risen.

† What do I need to shed?

† What truth will I tell—kindly yet boldly?

† My new yeast will be _____?

Our Mission

As a welcoming people, with Jesus as our foundation, we are the Catholic Community of St. Scholastica Parish.

Guided by the Holy Spirit and the Scriptures and strengthened by the Eucharist, we humbly and joyfully accept our baptismal call to share our time, talents, and treasures to support and nurture each other and those in need.

Welcome

All those visiting the parish are invited to stop by the “Welcoming Center” in the Breezeway of the Church to pick up information about our parish. Registration forms can be found in this area and once completed can be placed in the offertory basket at Mass. The form can also be downloaded from our web site. If you need any assistance in completing the form, please don’t hesitate to contact us at 630.985.2351, ext. 122. We would also be happy to take your information over the phone.

My fellow Stewards—“Stewardship our Way of Life”

- ◆ Receive God’s gifts gratefully
- ◆ Cultivate them responsibly
- ◆ Share them lovingly in justice with others
- ◆ Return them with increase to the Lord

Teach us to be the very building....the people of God.

We encourage everyone to consider using the Sunday Offertory Envelopes or Online Giving as a way of giving to the Lord the “first fruits” of the “treasure” you have received.

Due to the bulletin deadline created by the Easter Holiday, Stewardship information for the week of March 23 & 24 will be included in next week’s bulletin.

Thank you and God Bless you for your continued support and generosity!

Has your credit card information changed? Do you have a new expiration date? Be sure to update information for all of your automatic payments, including Online Giving!!!!

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we sincerely thank you! If we all join together, we can meet our parish's goal of $101,700. Each and every gift, regardless of size, truly matters and makes a difference.

If you still plan on making your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how best you can support the CMAA this year to help those in need throughout our diocese, For the Glory of God. Pledge envelopes are still available in the breezeway, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal, the diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

From time to time there are phishing (SCAM) emails going out to members of the parish claiming to be Fr. Norbert. Please note Father Norbert, Father Ed, our deacons and staff DO NOT send texts or emails asking for money or gift cards. If you receive a message appearing to be from Father Norbert or Father Ed, please discard it (any email that does not have "stscholasticparish.org" is a fake email), and DO NOT SEND ANY ELECTRONIC MONETARY AID. No clergy or staff will personally ask for money in whatever form (gift cards, etc.). If someone sends you a private message asking for a donation of sorts, it's undoubtedly a fake account. Please keep praying for us and God bless you.

Your Weekly Message from Fr. Norbert, CR

In the gospel passage this Easter Sunday according to St. John we hear that, "On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark..." She was surprised when she discovered that the stone covering the entrance of the tomb had been moved away. Not knowing what to think she ran to tell Peter and the other disciple about what she found. It was the other disciple, who ran with Peter, who immediately believed that the Lord had risen from the dead when he entered the empty tomb. This past Lent was our entering the empty tomb and realizing that the Lord Jesus is truly risen and lives among us. When we share in this Eucharist at Mass, we proclaim the good news that the Risen Lord remains with us. Easter Sunday is a celebration of a life-giving event and all of us are invited to be His witnesses to everyone we encounter. On behalf of the entire staff at St. Scholastica Parish and School, I wish you all a joy filled Easter. Alleluia! Since this is my final Easter message to the parish, I wish to reiterate that both Fr. Ed and I are members of the religious community, the Congregation of the Resurrection. It was early on Easter Sunday morning, March 27, 1842, that the first seven men made their way to the catacomb of St. Sebastian on Via Appia Anticha, which is just outside the walls of Rome. They formed a new religious community, the Congregation of the Resurrection and professed the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience after mass. Over these 182 years of existence the CR's have proclaimed the Risen Lord in various parts of the world where we have ministered, and hopefully Fr. Ed and I have brought the presence of the Risen Christ to St. Scholastica Parish. Once again, we pray that you have a truly blessed and Happy Easter. Alleluia!

Fr. Norb, C.R.

A PRAYER TO ST. PEREGRINE FOR ONE SUFFERING FROM CANCER

Dear St. Peregrine,

I need your help. I feel so uncertain of my life right now. This serious illness makes me long for a sign of God's love. Help me to imitate your enduring faith when you faced the ugliness of cancer and surgery. Allow me to trust the Lord the way you did in this moment of distress.

I want to be cured, but right now I ask God for the strength to bear the cross in my life. I seek the power to proclaim God's presence in my life despite the hardship, anguish and fear I now experience.

O Glorious St. Peregrine, be an inspiration to me and petitioner of those needed graces from our loving Father.

Amen

Please Pray for Our Friends and Family Battling Cancer

NATIONAL Eucharistic
Revival

Alleluia!

“Jesus and the Eucharist” is a dynamic seven-session study that Deacon Tom and Deacon Bob have been hosting as a way for us to connect with our fellow parishioners as we fall deeper in love with our Eucharistic Lord. The video sessions can also be found at the National Eucharistic Revival website – see QR code below.

In the sessions, we pray together and hear from some of the most brilliant voices in Catholicism. We explore the mystery of the Eucharist anew and share our experiences and hopes in a friendly, familial setting. The group opening prayer is a Lectio Prayer followed by a litany.

Below is an abridged Litany of the Most Holy Eucharist. At the asterisk, people respond, “Have mercy on us.”

Which of these names of Jesus speaks to your heart?

- Jesus, Eternal High Priest of the Eucharistic Sacrifice, *
- Jesus, Divine Victim on the Altar of our salvation, *
- Jesus, hidden under the appearance of bread, *
- Jesus, dwelling in the tabernacles of the world, *
- Jesus, really, truly, and substantially present in the Blessed Sacrament, *
- Jesus, abiding in Your fullness, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, *
- Jesus, Bread of Life, *
- Jesus, Bread of Angels, *
- Jesus, with us always until the end of the world, *
- Sacred Host, summit and source of all worship, and Christian life, *
- Sacred Host, sign, and of the unity of the church, *
- Sacred Host, adored by countless angels, *
- Sacred Host, spiritual food, *
- Sacred Host, Sacrament of love, *
- Sacred Host, greatest aid to holiness, *
- Sacred Host, gift, and glory of the priesthood, *
- Sacred Host, in which we are given a pledge of future glory, *

At Easter and through the Easter Season, may the Risen Christ fill your heart with every grace and blessing!

Alleluia!
