Enlightened Sight.

The blind man will not be silenced today. Insistently he calls on Jesus by name. He asks for pity; he asks for sight. Jesus makes it happen. Instead of returning home to a renewed life, he throws off this cloak and jumps in to action and follows. Even when sightless, he saw with eyes of faith. Because of this encounter with Jesus, his insight is richer.

- † What do I need to be of Jesus? For myself? For someone else?
- † How can I keep listening for Jesus already active in my life? In the lives of others?
- † What “cloak” that holds me back will I throw off to follow Jesus?

Importance of the impact a priest can make

BY FR. STEVEN BORELLO
DIRECTOR OF VOCATIONS

I invite you to take a moment and think of a priest who has impacted your life. There may be one or many, and these may be good, bad or both. The truth remains that our lives would be forever different had we not encountered or experienced them. A priest who is well formed, holy, and seeking after the heart of Jesus has the power to radically shape and shift the culture of a parish. They, because of the grace given them by God, release into the world his presence, bring healing, and work miracles in the community they are called to serve. These priests who have been well formed, give hope for the future and in the presence bring about stability because they are firmly rooted in the conviction of the call they have received.

This impact, or as I like to call it, the ripple effect of grace, moves from the Eucharist into the community, our homes and then into the world. I've seen this personally through healing miracles, transformed communities, vocations to marriage, consecrated life, priesthood, and the mixing of generations as the young and older walk together the life of faith. They say a holy priest forms great people and a great priest good people, etc.

Our church, your family, and your community deserve great and holy priests. This is the work of their seminary education, formation, and their shared experiences with you in the parish community. It is a great joy to watch as the young men see the possible impact they can make on the lives of people around them.

I ask that you take a moment to pray for your parish priest that he would be happy, healthy and holy. Please also pray for the young men in your parish that their hearts would be open to a call to priesthood. Lastly, please pray for our seminarians that they will grow in their love of God and love of the future community they will serve.

ABOUT FR. BORELLO

Fr. Steven Borello is a priest of the Diocese of Joliet currently serving as the Director of Vocations.

Fr. Steven grew up in Glen Ellyn, Illinois, and is the oldest of 4 children.

PRAY TO END ABORTION

While there, he received a call to the seminary to discern the priesthood.

He received his Bachelors in Theology and Masters of Divinity from Mundelein Seminary and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Joliet in 2011.

He first served as an associate pastor at Notre Dame Parish in Clarendon Hills and was then transferred to Saints Peter and Paul Parish in Naperville in June of 2014.

In August of 2015, he began serving at St. John Vianney College Seminary as a spiritual director, director of human formation, and instructor to more than 120 men discerning a priestly vocation.

He returned to the Diocese of Joliet in August 2018 to begin as the Director of Vocations.

Please consider making a donation for a family in need in our community. Your gift will be used to provide a Thanksgiving dinner. Donations may be made by check, payable to St. Scholastica and marked "Thanksgiving." You may deposit them in the Sunday collection or mail to the parish. Foster A Child's Love For The Eucharist

by Bobby Angel - CatholicLink

"Alright kids, why do we go to Mass?"

We ask a variation of that question every time we arrive at our parish parking lot, usually sweaty and disheveled from wrangling four (soon to be five) children into the van. A mini call-to-action and reminder of why Mass is important, they respond in chorus as we've taught them:

"To say thank you to God!" (And hopefully to behave well enough for donuts afterward).

The point of Mass is not for our entertainment or time to mingle with friends, but to give our highest worth (literally "worship") to God. Jesus wants to nourish us through both Scripture and the Eucharist, the "Source and Summit" of our faith.

In every Mass Jesus comes to us in the smallest, most humblest of ways, with the ultimate goal of providing us with the nourishment we need for this earthly journey. Bethlehem, where Christ was born as a defenseless baby, means "City of Bread," and the manger, the trough in which he was laid, is where the animals literally fed. From the Manna in the desert through the yearly Passover celebration held by the Jewish people, to the Last Supper of Jesus and His disciples, the Eucharist was foreshadowed all along.

God longs to feed us with Himself— the very Bread of Life!

4 Ways To Foster A Child's Love For The Eucharist

1. Pray daily! Sounds too easy, right? But prayer is usually the first thing that drops when we get "too busy." Make time for Adoration as a family. See if a local parish offers a night of worship or even a chapel to stop in and pray together (even if it's only 5 minutes). The family that prays together stays together!

2. Make them think. Ask questions leading up to each Mass. Talk about why the Mass is so important and even share your own difficulties as an adult in staying focused and being thankful for God's abundant blessings. We've found that looking at the Sunday Readings ahead of time together can also foster familiarity with Scripture and it leads to that exciting moment of, "Hey, I've heard that before!"

3. Watch Your Witness. "More is caught than taught"— our kids will see our behavior, attitude, and time given towards the Eucharist as the ultimate measure of whether or not we as adults truly believe in the presence of Christ before us. "Monkey see, monkey do," and our children can sniff out whether or not the Eucharist is worth our own devotion.

4. Feed others. Serve together as a family! Go to a soup kitchen or collect toys/old clothes to donate for other families. Organize a meal train for a new mom or a neighbor who is sick. We are the hands and feet of Christ and as we are fed through the Eucharist, so we are sent out to feed others in need.

We're all imperfect. We all have moments of doubt, of struggle, of tiredness, or bewilderment in trying to wrap our heads around the Eucharist (which is understandable...it's a mystery!) We're also in good company, with all the flawed apostles and saints. We ourselves often pray that prayer of imperfect faith from the man who approached Jesus to implore the healing of his son—"I believe; help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:24).

What's most important is that we keep trying anew each day to revere our Lord in the Eucharist together as a family, and God will bless the good work we've begun.
